Title: Pseudo-absolute values and Berkovich spaces.

Abstract: We will introduce the notion of pseudo-absolute value on a field. Roughly speaking, absolute values are generalisations of usual absolute values by allowing "singularities". We will motivate the definition and see of this notion is related to Berkovich spaces and Zariski-Riemann spaces. The talk will be as self-contained as possible.